

OBITUARIES

BREWER

Esther Sedonia Brewer, 95, went to be with her Lord and Savior on August 22, 2025. She peacefully surrendered as she was surrounded by her family.

Sedonia was born April 20, 1930 in Beaumont, Texas to her adoring parents, Felix and Lucy New. As a child, Sedonia could be found mostly outside looking for a project that she could do with her father. She was a natural athlete and very competitive as a young woman she enjoyed activities such as roller derby and later in life could be found at the bowling alley. Sedonia and her late husband, Clyde Brewer, toured Texas with their band and always had a great story to tell. She had an incredible sense of humor that always left you smiling long after she was gone.

She spent her life in service. As a nurse, she spent many decades helping others on their worst day and others on their best days. She was one of the first flight nurses for life flight in Houston and in her later years, used her experiences to work with the elderly to provide them with comfort and companionship. She was also known as a child of God and spent her whole life serving him and her church. Sedonia could always be found singing in the choir and attending one of many church groups. She was a humble and faithful servant.

Sedonia is survived by her daughters, Renee and James Prestidge, Darline Jacobson and Gene Bridges, Tina Perkins, and her son, Russel and Haley Brewer, Elaine and David Mikulena. She also has 11 Grandchildren, 22 Great Grandchildren and 12 Great Great Grandchildren. She is preceded in death by her Husband, Clyde Brewer. Sister, Maybelline Young and Brother, Bishop New. As well as her sons, Skipper and Bruce Brown and her grandson, Michael Prestidge.

Visitation was from 10-11am on Friday, August 29 and Services to honor Sedonia followed at 11 am, at Southwinds Baptist Church 16811 FM 2920 Road, Tomball, TX 77377.

Graveside services will be immediately following at Woodlawn Cemetery at 1101 Antoine, Houston, TX 77055.

HAAK

Johnnie Lou Schmidt Haak,

child of God, went to be with her Lord and Savior on August 22, 2025. Johnnie moved from Hempstead to Georgetown, Texas, in 2009, having moved there to be near her niece Ruth Haak Swenson, following the untimely death in 2008 of her husband, Bill Haak, to whom she was married for 56 years. Johnnie was born September 29, 1932 at Monaville, Texas to John Herman Schmidt and Julia Frey Schmidt. Johnnie was preceded in death by her parents, her brother Louis H. Schmidt, her sisters Pauline Wollgast, Myrtle Carson, Doris Haak, Ruth Karisch Connett, Judith Smith, and God-child Kim Schmidt. She is survived by her brother Gerald Stanley Schmidt and wife Paulette, sister, Patsy Dotson, special cousin Betty Rheman, God-children Rhonda Becvar, Perry Lea Harrison, James Haak, as well as many nieces, nephews and great nieces and nephews who were all very dear to her.

Johnnie worked for the United States Department of Agriculture, ASCS, retiring in 1994 with 30 years of service. She was an active member of Faith Lutheran Church in Georgetown where she enjoyed worshiping with and participating in the many activities there with her many new friends. Johnnie was also an active member of the SPJST Lodge in Round Rock.

The move to Georgetown proved to be the right decision for Johnnie. She enjoyed being a part of the family of her niece Ruth Haak Swenson and her husband Jack Swenson and their children and grandchildren. Johnnie bought a home in the Texas Traditions Subdivision and there she had wonderful neighbors and friends that were a blessing to her. Johnnie enjoyed playing domino games and did this weekly.

In June 2017, Johnnie sold her home and moved to an Independent Living Apartment at the Retirement Community of The Wesleyan in Georgetown where she again made many new friends.

Visitation was from 5pm to 7pm on Saturday August 30, 2025 at Canon Funeral Home in Waller, Texas. Funeral Services were at 2pm on Sunday August 31, 2025 at Canon Funeral Home, with internment immediately following at the Hempstead Cemetery, Hempstead, Texas.

Johnnie was fully content in Christ's promise that she would be going to her eternal heavenly home prepared for her by her Lord and Savior. If anyone wishes to give a memorial in Johnnie's memory, the family requests that memorials be given to Faith Lutheran Church Building Fund, 4010 Williams Dr., Georgetown, TX 78628, Trinity Lutheran Church, Building Maintenance Fund, 1906 8th St., Hempstead, TX. 77445 or a charity of your choice.
